Industrie 4.0 meets Logistics 4.0

One visit, two events:

HANNOVER MESSE and CeMAT

In April 2018 the world's largest exhibition venue will host two top events at the same time: HANNOVER MESSE and CeMAT. This will generate unprecedented synergies between automation, digitization, energy technology, intralogistics and supply chain management.

HANNOVER MESSE – smart integration at the world's leading industrial show

Integrated Industry – Connect & Collaborate

Digital twins, cobots, smart supply, virtual power plants ... Connectivity is a vital prerequisite for Industrie 4.0 and modern energy systems. This mega trend will be in evidence in all sections of HANNOVER MESSE 2018. The programmatic motto “Connect & Collaborate” stands for innovative forms of economic collaboration and activity, new contacts and unlimited business opportunities.

Partner Country Mexico

The Partner Country in 2018 will present a complete spectrum of innovative technology. The central pavilion in Hall 27 will focus on current projects, growth strategies and investment opportunities in Mexico, while themed presentations at the individual trade shows provide an additional platform for Mexican enterprises and research organizations.

CeMAT – global stimulus for future-oriented logistics

Connected supply chain solutions are revolutionizing trade and industry

In the face of growing competition enterprises need to digitize and integrate their value chains. Under the heading “Connected Supply Chain Solutions” CeMAT 2018 will get to grips with this key trend. To this end, new and exciting formats have been created.

At the Logistics Hub you can explore successful 4.0 concepts in the area of order picking, palletization and identification. The Logistics 4.0 Forum will discuss key issues such as block-chain and IT security, robots and drones, digital shadows and artificial intelligence. At the Logistics Solutions Forum you can assess the potential of digital warehouses and smart containers – for example, in connection with returns management. Finally, the CeMAT offshoot of Young Tech Enterprises will deliver fresh ideas for the start-up community.
