I. Fees for participation

Please refer to the Price Book on Page 3 of this contract.

II. Value-added tax

All fees listed includes statutory value-added tax.

III. Payment deadlines, default of payment

1. Immediately after applying to participate in the event, the exhibitor must pay a sum amounting to 50% of the participation fee (stand open sides surcharge excluded) for the reserved exhibition area (advance rent) within ten (10) business days. Payment of the advance rent is a precondition for further processing of the application for participation.
2. The participation fee will be charged to the exhibitor directly after the stand rental contract comes into full legal effect (cf. clause 2 of Part B of the Conditions for Participation). The advance rent received will be deducted from the participation fee. Payment (stand open sides surcharge included) is to be made to the account shown on the invoice by 31 Aug. 2025. If a payment is not received by the stipulated due date, default of payment shall take effect automatically and without notification. If the invoice is issued after the specified date of default, payment is due either by the deadline stated on the invoice or else seven (7) days after the date of the invoice.
3. If there is a default in payment, the organizer reserves the right to charge default interest from the due date at an interest rate of 5000‰ per day. Irrespective of charging default interest, the organizer reserves the right to terminate the stand rental contract as per clause 9, paragraph 5 of the General Conditions for Participation (part B).

IV. Construction and dismantling periods

Construction: 26 to 27 October 2025
Dismantling: 31 October 2025

The organizer is entitled to remove, at the exhibitor's expense, any objects not removed within the dismantling period. The organizer is not obliged to store these objects and may dispose of them at will.

Part B: General Conditions for Participation in events of Hannover Milano Fairs Shanghai Ltd. and its subsidiaries at the exhibition grounds of the Shanghai New International Expo Centre Co. Ltd.,
Shanghai/Pudong (China)

1. General

The following General Conditions for Participation in events at the exhibition grounds of the Shanghai New International Expo Centre Co. Ltd. (SNIEC) apply to the rental of display space to exhibitors at trade fairs and other events that Hannover Milano Fairs Shanghai Ltd. and/or a firm commissioned by it to organize the event or a cooperating firm (hereafter called respectively or collectively organizer) organizes at the SNIEC exhibition site. They complement the Specific Terms for participation in the event (Part A), which the exhibitor has also accepted by registering.

Transferring the rights and obligations arising out of this rental contract to third parties is permitted only to the extent that these Conditions for Participation anticipate this possibility.

2. Concluding the contract

Companies apply to participate in the trade fair and to rent display space by submitting the completed registration form, signed in a legally binding manner. The organizer reserves the right not to process the exhibitor's registration until the advance rent (Part A, Specific Terms for Participation, Clause III, No. 1) has been credited in full to the organizer's account.

There's an objection period of two (2) weeks after the exhibitor receives written confirmation from organizer of the allocation of display space at the event (stand confirmation). If the contents of the stand confirmation and the application differ, the exhibitor shall file the objection in writing during this period. The objection shall be filed against the stand applied by the exhibitor. Objection against areas other than the applied stand will be rendered as invalid and the exhibitor shall not file objection to special requirements or booth open sides.

If no written objection is filed during objection period, the contract between the exhibitor and the organizer concerning legally binding participation in the event and the rental of display space is fully validated. The organizer will review the written objection, if there is any during the objection period. If the objection is not consistent with the clause above, the organizer has the right to overrule it and thus validate the stand rental contract; but if stand confirmation is indeed different from application and it leads to non-conclusion of the contract and termination requirement from the exhibitor, the organizer will refund the advance rent paid by the exhibitor and neither party is responsible for contract violation.

3. Allocation of display space

The organizer is responsible for allocating display space and the organizer reserves the sole right for final decision and interpretation of any change of stand allocations at the fairgrounds. The exhibitor shall not be entitled to allocation of any particular space, nor for allocation of space in any particular area of the tradeshow.

In case of special circumstances after legally binding contract is valid between the exhibitor and the organizer, the organizer reserves the authority to uphold substantial interests of its own by subsequently relocating the exhibitor's stand to a space other than the confirmed space, altering the size of the space, moving or closing entrances or exits to the exhibition grounds or the halls, and making any other changes deemed necessary.

In such a case, if the change constitutes an unreasonable infringement of the exhibitor's interests, the exhibitor shall be entitled to give written notice of withdrawal within one (1) week of receiving notification of the change. The exhibitor shall not be entitled to any reimbursement of the expenses it has incurred. The advance rent and participation fee already paid will be refunded.

4. Stand construction and stand design

Stand construction, design and safety are the responsibility of the exhibitor, who is obliged to ensure that everything is carried out in accordance with all applicable regulations and statutory guidelines as well as SNIEC's Technical Guidelines, which form a constituent part of these Conditions for Participation.

The exhibitors whose sidewalls lean against each other, shall fully communicate and coordinate when designing and setting up the stands, in case the structures overstep the boundaries or the heights, or are exposed to the outside to harm the interest of the other.

If presentations are to be held at stands, measures must be taken to ensure that they do not cause any visual or acoustic disturbance of neighboring stands. Moreover, neither common aisles nor floor areas of neighboring stands may be obstructed in any way whatsoever. Sound emissions from the stand must not exceed 70 dB (A) at the presenting stand's boundaries. In case of infringement, the organizer is entitled at its own discretion to prohibit the presentation causing annoyance or obstruction, and in case of repeated infringement to terminate the stand rental contract with immediate effect. Prepaid expense is not to be refunded but deducted as penalty.

Stands must be staffed during opening hours and be filled with exhibits. Only brand new products may be exhibited, unless they are items that are used solely as fittings or for illustrative purposes. Exhibits other than those registered are not permitted.

The organizer is entitled to have exhibits removed from the stand if their display violates principles of competition law or relevant legal regulations or is prohibited on any other grounds.

Displaying prices on exhibits is prohibited, as are references to suppliers, customers or sales figures for the goods on display.

Surveys and promotional activity on the part of the exhibitor are permitted only at its own stand.

5. Co-exhibitors

Use of display space by multiple firms is only permitted if the registration documents for the event expressly authorize the admission of co-exhibitors. Use of the display space by a further firm requires a special application on the part of the exhibitor in accordance with the attached registration forms, and acceptance is contingent upon the organizer's written approval.

A firm must be registered as a co-exhibitor if it is represented within the display space rented by an exhibitor or organizing body and meets either of the following conditions:

- The firm is represented alongside an exhibitor with its own staff and exhibits.
- The firm is represented alongside an exhibitor without its own staff but with its own exhibits (brochures or printed matter not counting as exhibits) whilst itself not being an exhibitor.

The acceptance of co-exhibitors is only valid upon payment (Part A, Specific Terms for Participation, Clause III, No. 2) Further, these Conditions for Participation apply also to co-exhibitors insofar as they are relevant; the exhibitor must make its co-exhibitors aware of these Conditions for Participation and the terms complementing them and is legally responsible to the organizer for co-exhibitors' compliance with them.

If the co-exhibitor has not been registered, incompletely registered or untruly registered by the exhibitors, the organizer has the right to refuse the unregistered co-exhibitor to attend the exhibition; even if the co-exhibitor is agreed to attend the exhibition, the organizer has the right to evaluate the exhibition fees accordingly.

Booth transferring happening with one exhibitor title changing into another, which is not called co-exhibitor, but booth transferring. The organizer forbids the booth transferring without permission. Once happened, the organizer will immediately disqualify both sides of the booth transferring. The exhibition fee will not be refunded as the penalty of disobeying the rules.

If several firms wish to rent a stand together, they are obliged to designate a common representative in their registration. Irrespective of this, each of the participating exhibitors is obliged to furnish the stand with its own samples and to staff it with its own personnel.

If a third party is involved in constructing the stand or is otherwise involved in arranging the exhibitor's participation in the trade fair, the exhibitor can authorize the former in writing, by providing the third party's address, to order services in a legally binding manner or to make other statements in connection with participation in the trade fair on behalf of the exhibitor and possible co-exhibitors. All further documents relating to the event (stand confirmation, offer of services, Technical Guidelines, etc.) will be remitted to the firm designated as the representative acting on behalf of the exhibitor.

6. Terms of payment

Exhibitors need to adhere to the payment deadlines listed in the Specific Conditions for Participation (Part A) under clause III. Full advance payment of the invoice amounts is a precondition for using the allocated display space, for inclusion in the catalogue and for exhibitor passes.

Non-Chinese exhibitors are required to pay all invoice amounts to the organizer in EURO. Chinese exhibitors are required to pay all invoice amounts to the Chinese agents of the organizer in RMB. All payments must be transferred in full and without deduction of any bank charges or other fees to one of the accounts stated on the invoice. If payment is not made within the period stipulated, the organizer or its Chinese agent is entitled to charge default interest. In the case of default in payment by the exhibitor, the organizer may terminate the latter's stand rental contract.

In such a case as the exhibitor participates in the exhibition without meeting its payment obligations, the organizer can retain the exhibits and the stand fittings, and auction or sell them privately at the exhibitor's expense. The proceeds attained from this will be offset against outstanding payments owed by the exhibitor after deducting any costs arising from the auction or sale.

Exhibitors and co-exhibitors are liable as joint debtors to the organizer for the obligations arising out of this rental contract and the ordering of services.

Exhibitors can make a special application on a separate form for the participation fee and the fees for services to be invoiced to a third party. The application has effect only if it is signed in a legally binding manner by the exhibitor and the third party concerned and reaches the organizer at the latest by the deadline stated on the form.

7. Reservations

The performance of all services is subject to available capacities.

The organizer is entitled to postpone, curtail, temporarily close wholly or in part or cancel the event for a substantial reason (For example, force majeure such as pandemics, wars, turmoils, strikes, blockades, natural disasters, government restrictions resulted in the insufficiency of exhibitors). In the case of complete or partial postponement or curtailing, the contract is considered to apply to the altered period, unless the exhibitor objects in writing within a period of two (2) weeks after being advised of the alteration. Discounts on any agreed fees and reimbursement of any expenses incurred by the exhibitor in reliance on the event running as at first anticipated are hereby expressly excluded.

8. Exclusion of liability

The organizer accepts no responsibility for the exhibits and stand fittings and excludes on behalf of its employees and other representatives all liability for damage to them, except in the case of malicious intent or gross negligence. This exclusion of liability also applies if the stand fittings or the display merchandise are put in safekeeping by the organizer in exercise of its landlord's lien. The exclusion of liability is not impaired by the security measures in place at the exhibition grounds.

The organizer further excludes any claim for reduction in rent as well as liability for detriment and damage that exhibitors incur because of defects in the rental object, because of false information in allocating space, stand construction or approval of stand design, the exhibitor's catalogue entry as well as because of changes in stand size and other defective services that are not objected to immediately in writing – unless the organizer is obliged to take responsibility for these because of intentional or grossly negligent behavior on the part of its employees or other agents.

The organizer recommends that the exhibitor arrange transport and display insurance.

9. Premature termination of the rental contract

If the exhibitor intends to terminate the contract, after binding registration and the advance rent is paid but before the rental stand contract is fully validated, even if the organizer agrees to a complete or partial withdrawal, the exhibitor must nevertheless pay the indemnification fee. The indemnification amount equals the advance rent. Hence the advance fee will not be refund to the exhibitor.

If the exhibitor intends to terminate the contract after the contract takes full effect and after it the full participation fee is paid to the organizer, the organizer will take action according to the time of termination proposal: only if the participation contract is suspended before the payment deadline as specified under part A, point III, clause 2 will the indemnification amount to be paid by the exhibitor be lowered to 50% of the participation fee (stand open sides surcharge excluded) ; after the payment deadline, the indemnification fee amounts to 100% of the participation fee (stand open sides surcharge included) The organizer reserves the authority to withdraw from the contract or terminate the contract with immediate effect and take exhibitor's down payment and participation fee as penalty which is non-refundable if the exhibitor does not fulfill its obligations – in particular payment obligations that arise out of this contract, the Conditions for Participation or the terms complementing them – after extension of the deadline. This also applies if the exhibitor does not meet, or no longer meets, prerequisites for concluding the contract, particularly if the exhibitor has not been legally registered , attending the show with other company name, transferring booth without the organizer's permission, displaying exhibits not in accordance with the exhibits category.

The same applies in the event that the exhibitor ceases payment, or an application is made for a judicial insolvency procedure in respect of the exhibitor's assets, or if the exhibitor's firm is in liquidation. If the organizer becomes aware of the facts leading to its cancellation or termination of contract no later than two (2) months before the opening day of the fair, and if it succeeds in renting the exhibitor's space to another company, then the organizer is entitled to claim compensation amounting to 50% of the participation fee. If the conclusive facts become known to the organizer only after this deadline, or if the organizer is unable to rent the stand space to another company, the exhibitor is obliged to pay the full participation fee.

It is not considered to be a re-letting if, for aesthetic reasons, the space not used by the exhibitor is allocated to another exhibitor without the organizer deriving further proceeds from re-letting the space previously allocated to the relocated firm. Nor is it considered to be a re-letting if in a respective exhibitor group still unoccupied areas remain available or the organizer, as the result of a cancellation, has to re-plan the returned and the adjoining display spaces.

10. Intellectual property rights

To all the exhibits on display, the exhibitors either own the intellectual property rights, or have the authorization or permission for exhibition from the owner of the intellectual property rights, which have no infringement activity involved. Otherwise, the exhibitor will remove the infringed exhibits from display immediately, cooperate with the organizer and related legal agency on investigation and will not use this reason to request back any participation fee.

11. Supplementary terms

Constituent elements of the rental contract are service manual, the house rules of SNEC, the official index of product categories, published organizational information (e.g. the brochure Information for exhibitors) and any technical bulletins or other terms that are sent to the exhibitor prior to the fair. In particular, any services described in the Services manual as obligatory – some of which may be subject to charge – are considered as accepted, e.g. catalogue entry of company details or the provision of exhibitor passes.

12. Lapsing of exhibitor claims, requirement for the written form

All claims of the exhibitor against the organizer are to made in writing. Any claims lapse within 6 months, beginning from the last day of the fair. Agreements that depart from these terms or the terms complementing them must be in writing; facsimile signatures suffice.

13. Applicable law, place of jurisdiction

a) International exhibitors

This contract is subject to the law of the Federal Republic of Germany if it is made with International exhibitors (see Conditions for Participation Part A for the definition). The English version of the contract is definitive.

The place of jurisdiction is Hannover, Germany. However the organizer reserves the right to bring its claims at the court of the place in which the exhibitor is domiciled.

b) Chinese exhibitors
