Prerequisites for admission

The event is open in the first instance to manufacturing firms, but the organizer is also entitled to admit distributors and importers to the People's Republic of China as exhibitors or co-exhibitors.

Only companies whose exhibits fall within the tradeshow's official product index are eligible to participate. The advance rent received will be deducted from the participation fee. The balance shall be paid within 2 months before the commencement of the exhibition. Dismantling: 5 June 2020

Part B: General Conditions for Participation in events of Hannover Milano Fairs Shanghai, Ltd. at the exhibition grounds of the Shenzhen International Exhibition & Convention Centre, Shenzhen

1. General

The following General Conditions for Participation in events at the exhibition grounds of the Shenzhen International Exhibition & Convention Centre apply to the rental of display space to exhibitors at trade fairs and other events that a company (subsidiary) of Hannover Milano Fairs Shanghai, Ltd. (herein called "Organizer") organizes at the the Shenzhen International Exhibition & Convention Centre exhibition site. They complement the Specific Terms for participation in the event (Part A), which the exhibitor has also accepted by registering.

Transferring the rights and obligations arising out of this rental contract to third parties is permitted only to the extent that these Conditions for Participation anticipate this possibility.

2. Concluding the contract

Companies apply to participate in the trade fair and to rent display space by submitting the completed registration form, signed in a legally binding manner. The organizer reserves the right not to process the exhibitor's registration until the advance rent (Part A, Specific Terms for Participation, Clause III, No. 1) has been credited in full to the organizer's account.

The contract between the exhibitor and the organizer concerning legally binding participation in the event and the rental of display space takes effect when the exhibitor receives written confirmation from organizer of the allocation of display space at the event (stand confirmation). If the contents of the stand confirmation and the application differ, the contract shall be concluded on the basis of the stand confirmation unless the exhibitor objects in writing and this objection is delivered to the organizer no later than two (2) weeks after the date of stand confirmation. If the contract an exhibitor's objection leads to non-conclusion of the contract, the organizer will refund the advance rent paid by the exhibitor.

3. Allocation of display space

The organizer is responsible for allocating display space. The exhibitor shall not be entitled to allocation of any particular space, nor for allocation of space in any particular area of the tradeshow.

In case of special circumstances, the organizer reserves the right to uphold substantial interests of it own by subsequently relocating the exhibitor's stand to a space other than the confirmed space, altering the size of the space, moving or closing entrances or exits to the exhibition grounds or the halls, and making any other changes deemed necessary.

In such a case, if the change constitutes an unreasonable infringement of the exhibitor's interests, the exhibitor shall be entitled to give written notice of withdrawal within one (1) week of receiving notification of the change. The exhibitor shall not be entitled to any reimbursement of the expenses it has incurred. The advance rent and participation fee already paid will be refunded.

4. Stand construction and stand design

Stand construction, design and safety are the responsibility of the exhibitor, who is obliged to ensure that everything is carried out in accordance with all applicable regulations and statutory guidelines as well as the Shenzhen International Exhibition & Convention Centre's Technical Guidelines, which form a constituent part of these Conditions for Participation.

If presentations are to be held at stands, measures must be taken to ensure that they do not cause any visual or acoustic disturbance of neighboring stands. Moreover, neither common aisles nor floor areas of neighboring stands may be obstructed in any way whatsoever. Sound emissions from the stand must not exceed 70 dB (A) at the presenting stand's boundaries. In case of infringement, the organizer is entitled at its own discretion to prohibit the presentation causing annoyance or obstruction, and in case of repeated infringement to terminate the stand rental contract with immediate effect.

Stands must be staffed during opening hours and be filled with exhibits. Only brand new products may be exhibited, unless they are items that are used solely as fittings or for illustrative purposes. Exhibits other than those registered are not permitted.

The organizer is entitled to have exhibits removed from the stand if their display violates principles of competition law or relevant legal regulations or is prohibited on any other grounds.

Displaying prices on exhibits is prohibited, as are references to suppliers, customers or sales figures for the goods on display.

Surveys and promotional activity on the part of the exhibitor are permitted only at its own stand.

5. Co-exhibitors

Use of display space by multiple firms is only permitted if the registration documents for the event expressly authorize the admission of co-exhibitors. Use of the display space by a further firm requires a special application on the part of the exhibitor in accordance with the attached registration forms, and acceptance is contingent upon the organizer's written approval.

A firm must be registered as a co-exhibitor if it is represented within the display space rented by an exhibitor or organizing body and meets either of the following conditions:

- The firm is represented alongside an exhibitor with its own staff and exhibits.

- The firm is represented alongside an exhibitor without its own staff but with its own exhibits (brochures or printed matter not counting as exhibits) whilst itself not being an exhibitor.

Further, these Conditions for Participation apply also to co-exhibitors insofar as they are relevant; the exhibitor must make its co-exhibitors aware of these Conditions for Participation and the terms complementing them and is legally responsible to the organizer for co-exhibitors' compliance with them.

If the co-exhibitor has not been registered, incompletely registered or untruly registered by the exhibitors, the organizer has the right to refuse the unregistered co-exhibitor to attend the exhibition; even if the co-exhibitor is agreed to attend the exhibition, the organizer has the right to evaluate the exhibition fees accordingly.

Booth transferring happening with one exhibitor title changing into another, which is not called co-exhibitor, but booth transferring. The organizer forbids the booth transferring without permission. Once happened, the organizer will immediately disqualify both sides of the booth transferring. The exhibition fee will not be refunded as the penalty of disobeying the rules.

If several firms wish to rent a stand together, they are obliged to designate a common representative in their registration. Irrespective of this, each of the participating exhibitors is obliged to furnish the stand with its own samples and to staff it with its own personnel.

If a third party is involved in constructing the stand or is otherwise involved in arranging the exhibitor's participation in the trade fair, the exhibitor can authorize the former in writing, by providing the third party's address, to order services in a legally binding manner or to make other statements in connection with participation in the trade fair on behalf of the exhibitor and possible co-exhibitors. All further documents relating to the event (stand confirmation, offer of services, Technical Guidelines, etc.) will be remitted to the firm designated as the representative acting on behalf of the exhibitor..

6. Terms of payment

Exhibitors need to adhere to the payment deadlines listed in the Specific Conditions for Participation (Part A) under clause III. Full advance payment of the invoice amounts is a precondition for using the allocated display space, for inclusion in the catalogue and for exhibitor passes.

Non-Chinese exhibitors are required to pay all invoice amounts to the organizer in EUROS. Chinese exhibitors are required to pay all invoice amounts to the Chinese agents of the organizer in RMB. All payments must be transferred in full and without deduction of any bank charges or other fees to one of the accounts stated on the invoice. If payment is not made within the period stipulated, the organizer or its Collecting Agent is entitled to charge default interest. In the case of default in payment by the exhibitor, the organizer may terminate the latter's stand rental contract.

The exhibitor can only set off counterclaims against participation fees due, fees for services and other claims arising out of the contractual relationship if its claims are undisputed or of legal effect. If an exhibitor does not meet its payment obligations, the organizer can retain the exhibits and the stand fittings, and auction or sell them privately at the exhibitor's expense. The proceeds attained from this will be offset against outstanding payments owed by the exhibitor after deducting any costs arising from the auction or sale. The statutory regulations on the realization of liens are – to the extent that that is legally permitted – excluded.

Exhibitors and co-exhibitors are liable as joint debtors to the organizer for the obligations arising out of this rental contract and the ordering of services.

Exhibitors can make a special application on a separate form for the participation fee and the fees for services to be invoiced to a third party. The application has effect only if it is signed in a legally binding manner by the exhibitor and the third party concerned and reaches the organizer at the latest by the deadline stated on the form.

7. Reservations

The performance of all services is subject to available capacities.

The organizer is entitled to postpone, curtail, temporarily close wholly or in part or cancel the event for a substantial reason (e.g. labor dispute, force majeure, inadequate turnout). In the case of complete or partial postponement or curtailing, the contract is considered to apply to the altered period, unless the exhibitor objects in writing within a period of two (2) weeks after being advised of the alteration. Discounts on any agreed fees and reimbursement of any expenses incurred by the exhibitor in reliance on the event running as at first anticipated are hereby expressly excluded.

8. Exclusion of liability

The organizer accepts no responsibility for the exhibits and stand fittings and excludes on behalf of its employees and other representatives all liability for damage to them, except in the case of malicious intent or gross negligence. This exclusion of liability also applies if the stand fittings or the display merchandise are put in safekeeping by the organizer in exercise of its landlord's lien. The exclusion of liability is not impaired by the security measures in place at the exhibition grounds.

The organizer further excludes any claim for reduction in rent as well as liability for detriment and damage that exhibitors incur because of defects in the rental object, because of false information in allocating space, stand construction or approval of stand design, the exhibitor's catalogue entry as well as because of changes in stand size and other defective services that are not objected to immediately in writing – unless the organizer is obliged to take responsibility for these because of intentional or gross negligence. This limitation of liability also applies to organizer's staff, agents and/or sub-contractors.

The organizer recommends that the exhibitor arrange transport and display insurance.

9. Premature termination of the rental contract

If, after binding registration or after a contract has been concluded, the organizer agrees to a complete or partial withdrawal, the exhibitor must nevertheless pay the full participation fee.

Only if the participation contract is suspended before the payment deadline as specified under part A, point III, clause 2 will the indemnification amount to be paid by the exhibitor be lowered to 25% of the participation fee. After the payment deadline, the indemnification fee amounts to 100% of the participation fee.

The organizer is entitled to balance any advance payments previously made by the exhibitor against the indemnification amount due.

If the exhibitor can provide proof that the damages actually incurred by the organizer are of smaller magnitude, then the exhibitor shall only be obliged to pay a correspondingly lower amount.

The organizer reserves the authority to withdraw from the contract or terminate the contract with immediate effect and take exhibitor's down payment as penalty if the exhibitor does not fulfill its obligations – in particular payment obligations that arise out of this contract, the Conditions for Participation or the terms complementing them – after extension of the deadline. This also applies if the exhibitor does not meet, or no longer meets, prerequisites for concluding the contract, particularly if the exhibitor has not been legally registered, attending the show with other company name, transferring booth without the organizer's permission, displaying exhibits not in accordance with the exhibits category.

The same applies in the event that the exhibitor ceases payment, or an application is made for a judicial insolvency procedure in respect of the exhibitor's assets, or if the exhibitor's firm is in liquidation. If the organizer becomes aware of the facts leading to its cancellation or termination of contract no later than two (2) months before the opening day of the fair, and if it succeeds in renting the exhibitor's space to another company, then the organizer is entitled to claim compensation amounting to 25% of the participation fee. If the conclusive facts become known to the organizer only after this deadline, or if the organizer is unable to rent the stand space to another company, the exhibitor is obliged to pay the full participation fee.

It is not considered to be a re-letting if, for aesthetic reasons, the space not used by the exhibitor is allocated to another exhibitor without the organizer deriving further proceeds from re-letting the space previously allocated to the relocated firm. Nor is it considered to be a re-letting if in a respective exhibitor group still unoccupied areas remain available or the organizer, as the result of a cancellation, has to re-plan the returned and the adjoining display spaces.

10. Intellectual property rights

To all the exhibits on display, the exhibitors either own the intellectual property rights, or have the authorization or permission for exhibition from the owner of the intellectual property rights, which have no infringement activity involved. Otherwise, the exhibitor will remove the infringed exhibits from display immediately, cooperate with the organizer and related legal agency on investigation and will not use this reason to request back any participation fee.

11. Supplementary terms

Constituent elements of the rental contract are the house rules of the Shenzhen International Exhibition & Convention Centre, the official index of product categories, published organizational information (e.g.

the brochure Information for exhibitors) and any technical bulletins or other terms that are sent to the exhibitor prior to the fair. In particular, any services described in the Services manual as obligatory – some of which may be subject to charge – are considered as accepted, e.g. catalogue entry of company details or the provision of exhibitor passes.

12. Lapsing of exhibitor claims, requirement for the written form

All claims of the exhibitor against the organizer are to be made in writing. Any claims lapse within 6 months, beginning from the last day of the fair. Any Agreements that deviate from or amend these terms or the terms complementing them must be in writing.
